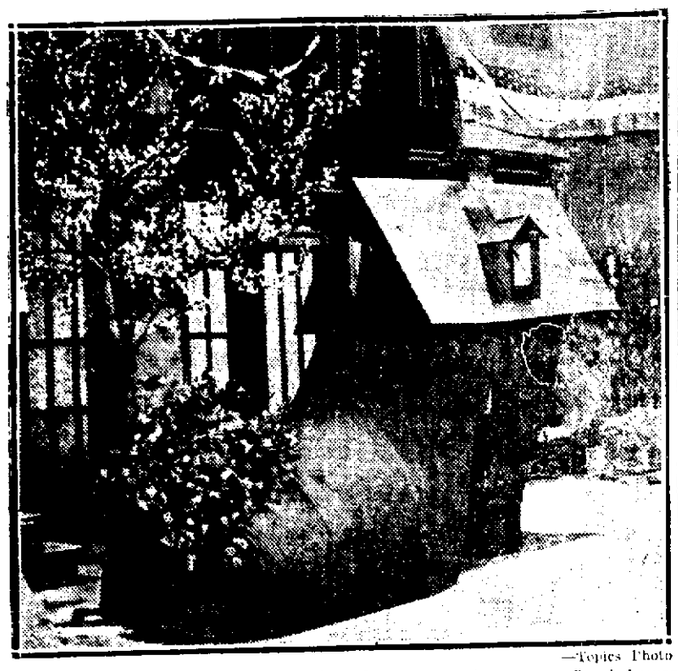
Annual Flower Show Now Open



—Topics Photo

The old woman's shoe of Mother Goose fame became a floral bower when paper flower makers reproduced it for their exhibit in the annual South Parks' Flower show, which opened Sunday at Sherman Park. Doesn't the cherry tree in the background look realistic? The show is unusually attractive this year and is drawing many visitors to the Field house.

During the show each of the fifteen parks represented will have charge of an evening program. Tonight, Thursday, Fuller Park will give the entertainment; Friday, Ogden; Saturday, Bessemer Park; and Sunday Sherman will furnish the program.

WOULD OUST CARNIVALS IN LOCAL DISTRICT

No Grudge Against Church Affairs, But Fight Outside Concerns

The 59th Street Business Men's association is determined that merry-go-rounds, fortune tellers, and carnival companies shall not ply their trade in this district. Members of the organization say they are not "prim" or "prudish," but that they feel it is an injustice for neighborhood business men who have the welfare of the community at heart, to have to compete with outsiders whose only aim is to get money from local residents and then move on to new fields.

According to Arthur Carlsten, 2848 59th st., attorney and legal adviser for the association, these carnival companies have a questionable way of obtaining permits to operate. They follow routes across the country and have advance agents who pick sites in the different localities, he said. These agents, he continued, induce some clergymen to request that they be given a permit, and in return they promise the church financial aid from the proceeds of the carnival. Last year, according to Mr. Carlsten, a carnival made about $5,000 in a few days and their "aid" to the church through which they obtained their permit was to present them with a lamp worth $5.

Frank J. Kleisner, 2848 59th st., realtor and president of the association, says that his organization has no quarrel with legitimate bazaars and carnivals given by churches and societies within the district, but that they are opposed to the national carnival companies which move from city to city, occupy vacant property at no rental, and take business away from local merchants who are building up the community.

Dr. B. D. Satek, 2610 [illegible]th st., was appointed chairman of a committee to get in touch with other south side business and civic organizations in an effort to secure their co-operation to eradicate these carnivals.

The association has started a movement to get the owners of vacant property on 59th st. to improve their holdings, or at least prevent it from passing into the hands of speculators. They are also circulating a petition for more street lights on 59th st. At the present time there is one light every two blocks or at each car stop. That this number is decidedly insufficient goes without saying, according to President Kleisner.

ERECT MONUMENT TO HONOR DEAD PASTOR

Honoring the memory of their former pastor, the late Rev. F. A. Bonander, the congregation of the Lutheran Messiah church erected a monument for him at his grave in Oak Hill cemetery. It will be given over to his family at a public ceremony at the cemetery May 25 at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Congregation members and friends desiring to contribute to the cost of the monument may bring their offerings to the Sunday evening service, May 11. Memorial services for the dead pastor are to be held at 8 o'clock. Addresses will be given on his life and work and there will be special music. His death occurred five years ago. The present pastor, the Rev. Gottfrid Olson, will speak.

FOSTER & McDONNELL HAVE NEW PAPER

Foster & McDonnell, publishers of the Southtown Economist, have taken over New City Topics, a community weekly devoted to the interests of the district north of West Englewood and Marquette Manor. This week's issue was the first to appear under the new management.

Topics is issued on Tuesdays. It is a new publication and has been in existence only six weeks.

MELVIN JONES TELLS WEST ENGLEWOOD DEN LIONS CLUB BENEFITS

SPEAKER SAYS ORGANIZATION INCREASES MEMBERS' VALUE IN THE COMMUNITY

Benefits accruing to members of the Lions club through their affiliation with the organization were explained by Melvin Jones, secretary of the International Lions club, who was the speaker at Thursday's meeting of the West Englewood den.

"Membership in the Lions club develops initiative, leadership, adaptability and the quality of measuring everything with the Golden Rule," Mr. Jones said. "It used to be said that competition was the life of business, but now we know that co-operation is the thing that inspires us. We are able to obtain this co-operation by meeting every week. In addition to building better men of us it makes us able to build a better community."

Posters to be used in connection with the retail sale of tickets for the Lions club-Southtown Infant Welfare benefit show, to be held at Ascher's Columbus theater the evenings of May 12, 13, 14 and 15, were distributed among the members by A. R. Millner, chairman of the publicity committee of the show.

Ten more members were formally installed into the den. Harry Keeler acted as chairman of the meeting.

Dr. E. V. Perkins will be in charge of this week's meeting and Paul Troy will give the three-minute talk.

FIREMEN'S MASCOT HEARS GONG, RETURNS TO HEADQUARTERS 12

RUNAWAY DOG GIVES UP SPRING JAUNT IN FAVOR OF THRILLS OF FIRE FAN

To most people the clanging of a fire gong means the rush of speeding apparatus down the street while the traffic momentarily comes to a stop, but to Jack it means home. Jack is the brown and white spotted terrier who wandered into Battalion headquarters 12, at 6345 Wentworth ave., a month ago, and has since made it his home. He was adopted mascot of Engine company No. 51, which occupies the station, and grew to be a rabid fire fan.

Day or night, whenever an alarm came into the station and the huge doors swung open, Jack would jump on Battalion Chief John T. Moynihan's roadster and as it sped out he would hang on perilously in the folds of the opened top.

But spring called Jack, and Friday noon he left the station to satisfy the wanderlust. When the next alarm came in Jack was not on hand, and the firemen, when they returned, started a search for him. He could not be found.

The hours passed and the firemen gave up the search.

Early Saturday morning Chief Moynihan sped away from the station with Jack's place still empty. When the roadster came back and the doors of the station were about to swing closed, Jack ran in, almost exhausted, but happy—he was home.

Somewhere Jack had heard the gong of the roadster as it passed and he followed it back to the station.

TEN BOY SCOUTS AND EXECUTIVE AT CAMP

G. H. Schultz, field Scout executive of the Southwest district, with ten scouts from his district, returned Tuesday morning from spring camp at Owasippi, near Whitehall, Mich.

During the ten days spent in camp eighty-two Scouts, representing seven districts of Chicago, prepared Camp McDonald for the summer activities. They constructed a trading post, enlarged the parade grounds, and built a new gateway. Eighteen thousand trees were planted, entitling each of the boys participating to membership in the American Tree association.

Mr. Schultz reports a gain of 182 members for the southwest district during the past two months.

He is now making plans for community rallies which are to prepare for the district rally in June.

WOMAN'S ARREST FOLLOWS LIQUOR SALE TO CHILD

Police Again Raid Barnotoves Home Which Was Searched Last Fall

Liquor, sold to an 11 year old child, caused the arrest of Mrs. Emily Barnotoves, 5614 Kolmar ave., Sunday morning by Officers Nolan and Hazzard of the Englewood station.

The police saw Anna Hellan, the child, come out of the Barnotoves' home carrying a pint of moonshine. They stopped her and took the liquor for evidence. The girl told the police that Mrs. Barnotoves had sold her the liquor for $1 and that her mother, Mrs. Bertha Hellan, had sent her after it. The Barnotoves' home was raided by the police, but Mrs. Barnotoves had seen the officers stop the child, and all evidence had been destroyed.

Arraigned in the Grand Crossing court Monday morning Judge George A. Curran denied the woman's motion for a continuance and fined her $100 and costs.

The Barnotoves home was raided last fall by police and at the time a still was found. As no search warrant was obtained at that time the liquor case was dismissed, but when the officers complained of the squalid conditions in the home Barnotoves was placed on probation and sentenced to take a bath every week.

MOTHERS' DAY SERVICES AT LOCAL CHURCHES

Mothers will be eulogized in sermons and honored in songs at local churches Sunday. Flowers will be in evidence as a tribute to their memory.

Messages appropriate for the occasion will be heard from the Rev. J. H. McArthur, pastor of Marlboro Presbyterian church, 68th and Robey sts., at the morning service. Special music is being arranged. A drama on factors that go to make the ideal home is to be presented in the evening.

Accommodation for mothers with young children will be provided at the First M. E. church of Chicago Lawn, St. Louis ave. and 63rd st. The pastor, the Rev. John O. Crawford, has urged mothers of children to attend both Sunday school and regular morning services. Infants and small youngsters will be taken in charge by the superintendent of the cradle roll and amused while mothers are in church. Special music will be sung by the choir at 10:45 o'clock in the morning.

"Mother" will be the topic of the Rev. L. O. Cooperrider Sunday morning at 10:45 o'clock at the Atonement Evangelical church, 70th and Laflin sts. Observation of "Mother's Day" will feature at the Sunday school and morning worship of the First Mennonite church, 73rd and Laflin sts.

Floral tributes will be given mothers Sunday morning at the Drexel Park Presbyterian church, 64th st. and Marshfield ave. The pastor, the Rev. Clinton C. Cox, will speak. An extensive program has been arranged for the services at 11 o'clock in the morning and 8 o'clock in the evening. Numbers to be sung will be "Songs My Mother Used to Sing," "My Mother's Bible," a duet, "Flowers for the Living," by a vested choir. Miss Florence Kuglin will sing a solo, "Wear a Flower for Mother," and Ray Greiner will sing "Mother o' Mine."

Stereopticon views on "A Child and His Mother" will be exhibited Sunday evening at the Marquette Park Presbyterian church, 65th st. and California ave., at 8 o'clock. Special music will precede the sermon at 11:15 o'clock in the morning by the pastor, the Rev. L. W. Almy, on "The Mother Heart."

Choir and quartet of Marquette Manor Baptist church, 59th and Rockwell sts., will furnish special "Mother's Day" music Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The Rev. Frank C. Shaffer's sermon will be "The Debt We Owe."

Copies of a mother's gospel will be presented to every mother and father at the Ashland Church of Christ, 62nd and Laflin sts., Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The Rev. Will E. Shaw will talk on "A Godly Mother."

OGDEN PARK TO GIVE FLOWER SHOW PROGRAM

A special program of music, recitations and dances will be presented Friday evening, Ogden park night, at the paper flower show that opened Sunday at Sherman park. The program is as follows:

"I Know a Lovely Garden," "Thou Art So Like a Rose," and "Fulfillment," Leonard Huber, baritone.
Patriotic dance, Dorothy Childers.
Gypsy dance, Dolores Schnecgas.
Vocal solos, Dorothy Caraker, soprano.
Toe dance, Vivienne Payette.
Colonial dance, Gladys Lindberg and Dorothy Larson.
Skirt dance, Evelyn Miller.
Toe dance, Dorothea Schnicker.
Dialect stories, Mrs. Agnes Nunamaker.
"Sylvia," "Where Blossoms Grow," and "I'll Love You When Roses Blow," Leonard Huber.

EIGHTH GRADERS PLAY IN MOTHERS' PROGRAM

Rooms 303 and 308, the eighth grade rooms in the Perkins Bass school, 65th and May sts., will give an orchestral concert in the school auditorium Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. This concert is arranged for the entertainment of the mothers of pupils in attendance in these grades. The orchestra is in charge of Mrs. E. J. Waser, a teacher in the Perkins Bass school.

W. E. B. D. A. ADDS NINETY NEW MEMBERS

Growth of the West Englewood Business District association is indicated by the addition of ninety new members to the organization, resulting from the drive to bring more property owners and business people into the body.

Reports of their activities in getting more workers for the association will be submitted by the membership committee next Monday at the regular noon session to be held in the Jong Mee Lo cafe. Harold Campbell will preside if the president, Frank McGarr, is unable to be there, due to his trip this week to New York as a member of the laymen's committee to welcome Cardinal Mundelein.

Reaction of merchants of the vicinity to the automobile campaign also will be commented upon. Those members who are active on the automobile contest committee will report on the distribution of coupons. Over 100 have already been given out to dealers in the community according to Mr. McGarr.

WILL UNVEIL BOY SCOUT MONUMENT ON MEMORIAL DAY

STOCK YARDS SCOUTS TO PARTICIPATE IN CEREMONIES HONORING GERALD J. COURSEN

A life size statue of a Boy Scout is the unique monument to the memory of Gerald J. Coursen, a member of the Sherman Park Scout troop, whose death occurred last August, which will be unveiled at Mt. Greenwood cemetery on Memorial day.

Scouts of the Stock Yards district will take part in the ceremonies under the direction of Field Executive H. B. Stafford. Definite plans for the program have not yet been made.

The monument, for which blue prints have already been received by the boy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Coursen, 5510 Racine ave., who are putting it up, will be five feet six inches tall, the exact height of deceased Scout Coursen. Features will resemble as nearly as possible those of the dead boy.

Gerald Coursen was 16 years old at the time of his death the 15th of last August. He was a candidate for the Scout Star and Life badge when he died.

Nears Four Score and Ten Years

Lively traveling has kept Albert Frederick, 6545 Wood st., young in spite of the years that he counted past Thursday, May 1, when he celebrated his eighty-ninth birthday at the home of his son, Bert Frederick, 6545 Wood st. Every three or four months the old spirit of travel seizes the man who is nearing the four score and ten mark, and he goes back again to Pittsburgh, Pa., his adopted home.

Pastimes in the quiet Ohio town, across the border of Pennsylvania, were not strong enough to fascinate youth even in the day when Mr. Frederick and groups of his friends rode over the snow covered roads to the "hard time" parties and fiddling dances. Washingtonsville, O., gave up a good many of its young men and women at that time to supply the growing industries of Pittsburgh.

With no definite work in view, the boy from the small town found employment as a clerk in a small Pittsburgh store. Difficulties at home added an interest to his occupation that weighing of sugar and lima beans could not supply. It was during the drought of 1852 that the supply of feed became limited in the Ohio territory, and stock had to be disposed of in markets that called for a demand. Even Pittsburgh, the ideal of the youths across the border, could not meet this emergency. Necessity forced the young man to start with a group of companions to dispose of the cattle. Fifty-two head of milk cows made up the herd that was driven on foot from the Pennsylvania border to Rock Island, Ill.

Back in the store at Pittsburgh, life grew a bit dull. In railway trains that steamed across his road to work each day there seemed to be more action. Applying for a job on the Fort Wayne road, Mr. Frederick soon found himself a regular "brakey" running out from Pittsburgh. A greater line, the Lake Erie, soon offered better possibilities.

Vacationing in the home county, if going out to see the old folk was called vacationing in that day, Mr. Frederick found that even Pittsburgh had no girls like the country school teachers in Ohio, and he married one. After his home had been established in the city, the Lake Erie road employed him steadily until four years after the time that he was required to serve for his pension.

It was when he had reached the age of 65 that Mr. Frederick, trying to board a moving train, lost his left leg, but this was less than a discouragement to him. Supplying himself with a wooden substitute, he found that walking was quite convenient, and corns and chilblains had to be endured in only one instead of two feet. Even today Mr. Frederick finds that his day is incomplete without a walk of from three to four miles with his pet dog.

Electioneering has gone through many changes, according to Mr. Frederick's memory of political events. He recalls quite distinctly when Lincoln and Douglas were opponents in the senatorial race.

Never complaining of physical ailment, Mr. Frederick is healthier than his sons, he claims. He enjoys pleasures with his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, showing as much enthusiasm as a man of 75. Confidence in his own strength makes him feel that he is good for another ten years of happy life.

PICTURE AND VAUDEVILLE AT BENEFIT SHOW

Lindblom Students and Normal Quartet to Give Features

Plans are completed and the program arranged in detail for the vaudeville and motion picture show to be given Monday, Tuesday Wednesday and Thursday evenings of next week at the Columbus theater, 63rd and Ashland, for the joint benefit of the Southtown Infant Welfare station at Ogden Park and the West Englewood Lions club.

A short sketch, "On the Banks of the Wabash," will open the entertainment, then will be given the vaudeville with Lindblom high school students as the artists and lastly, the feature film, "The Hoosier Schoolmaster." Two shows will be given each evening.

Those who want to help the benefit performance may still secure tickets at the box office or from West Englewood business men.

The vaudeville program, in which the Normal quartet will assist high school students, is as follows:

Howard, 6603 Halsted st., and Jeanne Antrim, 7143 Sangamon st., both of the Englewood Dancing studio, will give a soft shoe dance, "Swanee River," at the infant welfare benefit.

Vocal solo, "Your Eyes," Eleanore Martin, with violin obligato by Edward Metzel; Spanish Dance, Isabel Harland; vocal solo, "For You Alone," Elizabeth Linaweah; Soft Shoe dance, "Swanee River," Jeanne Antrim and Howard Schultz; selections by Normal Male quartet composed of Arthur Glennie, Ray Greiner, Ted Roseen, Robert Glennie.

UNITED CHARITIES OPPOSED TO BEGGING

Speaking Monday evening at the meeting of the Marquette Park Improvement association in Scharf's Undertaking chapel, Martin H. Bickham, special representative of the United Charities, renewed the pledge he made a month ago to the Southwest District Improvement association, to co-operate with the people of Southtown to drive fraudulent beggars from the streets. A telephone message to the United Charities stating the presence of a beggar would be answered by an investigator, he promised.

James Sinclair, recording secretary of the association, announced that inflated property values along 63rd were still holding up the purchase by the city of a location for the new police station. Several officers of the association emphasized the point that property owners who increased the price on their holdings when the police station was authorized, would have to moderate their figures as the city was determined not to pay an unfair price.

TAKE $14 AND TAXI FROM CAB DRIVER

Another of the taxicab robberies, so prevalent in the 57th st. district, occurred early last Friday morning when two passengers in the cab of Carl Young, 437 E. 60th st., stopped him in front of 5721 Marshfield ave. and held him up.

Both the bandits were armed with revolvers. They obtained $14 from Young and drove off in his cab, which was recovered within a few minutes at 54th and Laflin sts. No trace of the bandits could be found. Young picked the passengers up at Racine ave. and Garfield blvd.

TO BE SOLOIST AT WELFARE SHOW

Eleanor Martin, 3533 W. 60th pl., will sing "Your Eyes," with a violin obligato played by Edward Metzel, at the Monday and Tuesday evening performances.

FIND STOLEN AUTO MINUS ACCESSORIES PARKED IN ALLEY

POLICE ARREST FLYNN AND GALVIN, WHO HAD RENTED GARAGE FOR CAR

Tracks of rimless wheels led to the arrest of two men Friday on charges of larceny of an automobile and the recovery of a car stolen six months ago, after it had been stripped of its accessories and abandoned.

The car was found in an alley in the rear of Elizabeth st., near 57th st., by Officers Veith and Ruddy of the Englewood station. The tires and rims had been removed as well as all the other accessories. The officers traced the tracks of the machine back to a garage in the rear of 5639 Ashland ave. From the landlord of the garage they learned that a space had been rented there for the car by a man who gave his name as McGowan early last October, but since then the car had not been moved.

On a pretext of having lost the key, the landlord called up a telephone number her tenant had given her and asked him to come over. John Flynn, 21 years old, 5630 Marshfield ave., answered the call and was placed under arrest. Edward Galvin, 27 years old, of the same address, who was with Flynn, was also arrested. Records of the police department show that the car was stolen November 13.

To obtain counsel, the men asked to have their case continued to May 9, when arraigned before Judge George A. Curran in the Grand Crossing court Saturday.

FIFTY MEMBERS ARE ADDED TO LISTS OF NEW BUSINESS ASSOCIATION

WILL NAME COMMITTEES AND PERMANENT MEETING PLACE MONDAY

Thirty-five new members were accepted at the meeting of the Chicago Lawn-Marquette District Business Men's association, held Wednesday, April 30, at 3155 W. 63rd st., and since the meeting more than fifteen business men have added their names to the list of members. After approving the by-laws of the association the session was devoted to organization and to the nomination of temporary committees.

Fred Ryan, 3542 W. 63rd st., was appointed chairman of a temporary committee to get in touch with other local organizations to prepare for the July 4 celebration. William G. Scharf, 3424 W. 63rd st., was named temporary chairman of the membership committee, and Isadore Braverman, 3061 W. 63rd st., temporary chairman of the location and entertainment committee.

WANT JOGS OUT OF ASHLAND AVE. WHEN WIDENED

Property Owners Here Would Know Cost of Straight Street Through City

Objections to the proposed jogs in the Ashland ave. widening project to permit the stock yards and 69th st. car barns to stand unaltered, while other buildings must be moved back ten feet to meet the city's orders, were made Tuesday evening at a meeting, held at the John Bain realty offices, 1610 W. 63rd st., of Ashland avenue property owners in the section between 47th and 69th sts., called by attorneys representing them.

George Bly expressed the views of the majority of those present when he said, "We are all for Chicago, but we want something for our money." However, it was made clear that a majority of those present were in favor of the widening, and wanted it done at once.

It was pointed out by several men that wider streets bring business, and increased business would help compensate for the loss of property. However, the proposed exceptions at the yards and car barns were thought to be unfair. Besides, these would detract from the attractiveness of the street, it was declared, and would hinder traffic.

Costs of Straight Street?

Originally employed to negotiate with city authorities for fair compensation in return for the loss of the property owners, attorneys were instructed to learn from the board of local improvements what would be the extra cost of widening the street straight through from end to end. Such action, the property owners felt, would repay the extra cost, which would be comparatively low when apportioned among all property owners along the street.

Attorneys were also authorized to continue action to secure lower assessments and more compensation. They reported that they had secured the services of George Mason, special assessment lawyer, who has already filed objections. The case is scheduled to come up today, Thursday, before Judge Swanson. The date of the trial is still a matter of doubt, attorneys stated, although it will probably be held this spring or summer.

As soon as the attorneys are able to report on the probable extra cost of widening the street at the stock yards and car barns, another meeting of local property owners will be called. At that time each property owner is expected to present figures showing the amount which he judges will be fair compensation for the loss of his ground. This is necessary as each case will be presented individually before the board of local improvements. Then, if the property owner is unwilling to accept what is offered him, evidence will be presented and the case submitted to a jury.

Funds Are Low

Action on the proposed widening of Ashland ave. has been slow, city officials told attorneys, partly because objections have been filed, and partly because of lack of funds for the work. Improvement of South Water st. has demonstrated the fact that increases in the cost of labor and materials will make the cost of the project greater than was anticipated when the city's street widening plans were adopted.

A minority of those present at the meeting opposed any widening of the street, pointing out that it is already wider in their section than at other points. They maintained that the removal of one block of concrete from the sidewalks, and the subsequent paving of this space, would provide ample room for traffic. With the assessments for paving of alleys and streets, the men said, they were put to enough expense without removing ten feet from the fronts of their buildings.

On the other hand, it was brought out that the widening will come eventually, and that its postponement is holding up progress along the street.

"Today Ashland ave. looks like a crazy quilt with new buildings being constructed back from the street to conform to the proposed change," declared one supporter of the improvement.

Improvement of the street, several declared, would help the whole south side, making an outlet to Roosevelt rd. and relieving the congestion on Halsted st.

ARREST LOCAL MEN IN ALCOHOL "HIJACKING"

Robbery charges have been lodged against George Hogan, former saloon keeper, 5541 Peoria st., and Dominick Damato, 1746 W. 69th st., proprietor of the Bungalow Inn, near Oak Lawn. They were taken into custody Sunday after "hijacking" a truck load of alcohol valued at $1,500, the Cragin Products company, 1833 N. Laramie st., was delivering to drug stores at 3:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon it is alleged.

This is the second loss of the kind the company has sustained in a short time. Previously thieves stole from them a large amount of denatured alcohol.

The liquid was being carried in five-gallon cans and in sealed drums. As the truck neared 69th st. and Oakley ave. a Ford drove up to it in which were two men. There was no license on the car. At the point of guns they demanded the chauffeurs to yield the alcohol.

They were forced to do so and saw the "hijackers" drive away with the delivery truck and its 145 gallons of alcohol. The robbery was reported to the police and Sergeant Stevenson of the detective bureau, working out of Englewood station, responded.

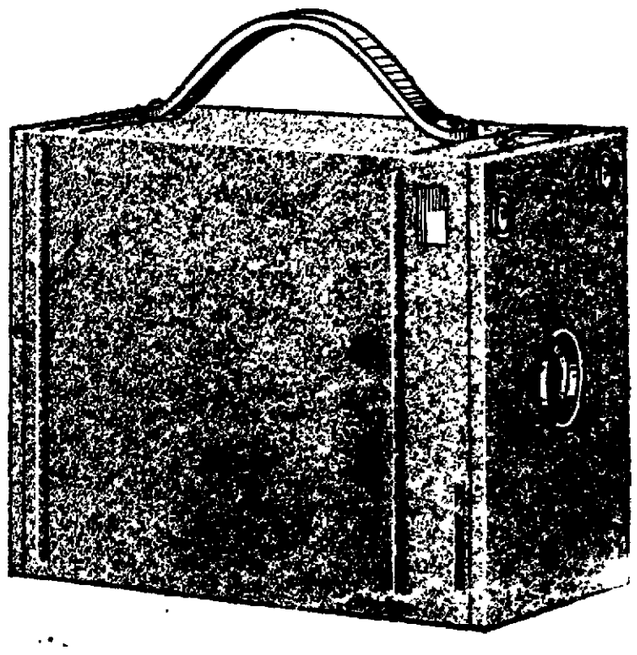
A CAMERA

FREE WITH EVERY NEW $10 SAVINGS ACCOUNT

We are still offering the same opportunity that we gave you last week—that of receiving a camera free with a new savings account of $10 or more. A good many took advantage of this offer last week, but we still have some cameras left. The number is limited, however, and we would advise coming in soon or you may be disappointed.

HERE IT IS!



Just Imagine Getting This Camera Free!

It is a regulation camera, guaranteed to take fine pictures. Any youngster would be tickled to death with one. And at the same time this little stunt can be the beginning of the thrift habit for any youngster.

By starting an account for him now, while he is young, he can learn the great lesson of thrift early in life and profit by it.

Habits are more easily formed in youth than at any other time. Get the habit of thrift firmly imbedded in your child's mind now, and you can rest easy regarding his future.

Come in today, before the cameras are gone. Receive one free and give your youngster a lesson in life's greatest problem at the same time. It costs you nothing.

SOCIAL AND ORGANIZATION ACTIVITIES

Entertains Women at Social

Mrs. Walter Gillette, 6550 Loomis blvd., entertained thirty members of the Neighborhood House Woman's club at a social last Thursday afternoon. Music and singing furnished entertainment.

Celebrate Silver Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. S. Braak of Spring Lake, Mich., 84 and 81 years of age respectively, were guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. Braak, Tuesday evening when the latter celebrated their silver wedding anniversary. The elder Braaks will next year celebrate their sixtieth wedding anniversary.

Twenty-four of the twenty-five years of the younger Braaks married life have been spent in Englewood. They now live at 1014 W. 71st st., where Mr. Braak is engaged in the bakery business. Immediately after their marriage at Grand Rapids, Mich., they came to Chicago to make their home.

Besides Mr. Braak's parents, the relatives attending the dinner were Albert and Clarence, son and daughter of the host and hostess, Mrs. J. Biegel, Mr. and Mrs. J. Braak and two sons, of Spring Lake, Mich., Rev. and Mrs. P. Braak, of Lansing, Ill., B. Braak and son, Mr. and Mrs. S. Biegel, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bynbeik, Mr. and Mrs. E. van der Goot, Mrs. C. McMullen, Miss Catherine Biegel and Miss Tracy Biegel.

Other guests included the Rev. and Mrs. B. Van der Berg, Mrs. G. Landhof and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hunsinger, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hofman, Mr. and Mrs. A. Doorn, Mr. and Mrs. S. Medema, Mr. and Mrs. William Meyer, Mrs. C. Dwarshius and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. Dwarshius, Mr. and Mrs. J. Witman, Mr. and Mrs. Deckinga, Mr. and Mrs. A. Smith, and Mr. H. Speulstra.

Bresnahan-Sheehan

Miss Margaret Bresnahan, 7208 Paulina st., became the bride of Charles Sheehan, 7922 Bishop st., a former resident of St. Rose's parish, where he was for a number of years active in social and church work, at a pretty wedding held Wednesday, April 30, at St. Justin, Martyr, church, 71st and Honore sts. The Rev. Father J. K. Fielding officiated.

Wearing a dainty frock of white georgette with pearl trimmings and a train veil of real lace, the bride carried a great shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Shepherd's crooks and Killarney roses were carried by her three bridesmaids, Misses Marion Julian, Mary Sheehan and Mary Bresnahan, who were attired in rainbow hued taffeta. A niece of the bridegroom, Mary Barrett, in blue and white, was a dainty little flower girl. Mr. Sheehan was attended by his brother Jack, and Patrick Meegan and Patrick Ronan served as ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception to immediate relatives only, was held at the home of the bride's father, Thomas Bresnahan, 7208 Paulina st. Mr. and Mrs. Sheehan left for an extended honeymoon in Palm Beach and other southern points.

Bunco Club Surprises Mrs. Klip

The Southtown Economist is published in three editions. The West Edition delivered every Thursday, carries the news of West Englewood, Ogden and Sherman Parks, Englewood-on-the-Hill, Marquette Manor, Marquette Park and Chicago Lawn.

The columns of the Economist are for the use of its readers. Personals, social and organization news, church notices, etc., if bearing name, address and phone of sender, will be published free of charge. Copy must reach the office not later than noon Wednesdays.

To those not in the distribution territory and unable to call at the office, the Economist will be mailed for $1.50 per year.

Know'st thou the land where the lemon trees bloom,
Where the gold orange glows in the deep thicket's gloom,
Where a wind ever soft from a blue heaven blows
And the groves are of laurel and myrtle and rose?
—Goethe

The need for police facilities for the district and the publicity proposed plans have received have caused a few thoughtful residents of the community to question about another aspect of the situation that has someway "been lost in the shuffle," or at least lost sight of for the time being. Some months ago the Englewood police court, on the second floor of the Englewood station at Wentworth ave. near 64th st., was ordered closed, following an inspection by fire protection officials. A court was established at the Grand Crossing station, 75th st. and Maryland ave., and since that time all cases handled by Englewood policemen, who cover the district sufficiently far west to include Clearing, have been tried in the Grand Crossing court.

WANT COURT NEARER

A trip to the Wentworth ave. court from Chicago Lawn and sections farther west had before been a matter of no small moment, because of the distance, but when local folk involved in police court cases are required to go almost to the extreme southeastern part of the city, it is time we protested. Perhaps the arrested party is not deserving of consideration—he's usually at the station anyway—but the complainant and witnesses should not have to take the better part of a day away from their businesses or professions to do their duty in helping with law enforcement.

The Englewood court was a tradition of many years' standing. If the proposed erection of the new station on Wentworth ave. is to be delayed indefinitely, there should be some arrangements made for holding court a few miles nearer the "scene of action."

The state of Mississippi has passed a "Stop! Look! Listen" law that requires autoists to stop more than ten feet from grade crossings, in an effort to minimize the annual toll of life and limb from crossing accidents. Sunday seventy-five arrests were made for failure to comply with the law which became effective the preceding Thursday. Perhaps the city of Chicago, if it does not soon secure action from railroads in the proposed scheme of elevation of all roadways at street crossings within the city limits, will find it profitable to pass an ordinance of a similar nature.

STOP! LOOK! LISTEN!

Automobile railroad grade crossing accidents last year were responsible for 7,175 deaths, according to reports made last week at the annual conference here under the auspices of the National Railroad and Utilities Commissioners, where speakers laid the major portion of the blame for the tremendous casualty to lack of proper caution on the part of the motorist. They claimed it had been found that 80 per cent of accidents occurred in broad daylight under ideal weather conditions.

Granting humans are naturally reckless and careless and that many accidents could be avoided if more caution were observed, there is no excuse for unelevated crossings on traffic congested streets such as we have in our district. But until they are built, we might find it profitable to pass a little "stop, look and listen" ordinance for our own individual observation if the city council fails to act, in order that we and our cars will not constitute the heap of debris on the tracks following the next grade crossing crash. Local residents have come to look upon periodical accidents as being inevitable, like the annual list of dead from drowning.

Refusal of continuance and the summary assessment of a fine was Judge Curran's reaction to a local liquor case a few days ago because the illegal beverage had been put into the hands of a child. The little girl's mother had sent her to buy the stuff. Take note, fathers and mothers. The mother of that child has found an excellent way to teach boys and girls disrespect for law that will probably lead them in later years to worse infringements than the transporting of alcohol—might even eventually put them behind prison bars. You may want to follow her example in the training of your own son or daughter.

HERE'S A TIP ON CHILD REARING

Men and women may think they are justified in disobeying the laws of their land to satisfy their own appetites, but, in heaven's name, how can they expect to instill respect for parental authority in the minds of the rising generation if they allow their children to see them openly flouting law—nay, even forcing the children to be parties to the law breaking?

A selfish, envious, suspicious, irritable, quarrelsome, violent, murderous world never more than now needed mother heart and love. God's world-measure is maternal: material, meter, matriculation, alma mater, pia mater, dura mater. Mind, nor spirit, culminate without the mother-soul; thus the God-Man grew in wisdom, stature, favor with God and man. Great men's tributes to Mother credit her building, measuring, moulding power. A "Brotherhood of Man" can come only through a Godly motherhood metering life from cradle to ballot-box and minister plenipotentiary.

MOTHER'S DAY
By the Rev. Will F. Shaw, Pastor Ashland Church of Christ.

Every day is Mother's day—or "used to be!" Mother had few holidays. Like Solomon's ideal, she toiled day and night. If I were a man who had a good mother, whether I believed in church or not, I'd go somewhere Mother's Day where I could take mother, or memories of her, hear songs and tributes to her, and think over again with others the mutual mystery and meaning of the mother life.

To us Kipling's "Recessional" is second to his tribute to mother.

"If I were hanged on the highest hill,
Mother o' mine, O Mother o' mine,
I know whose love would follow me still—
Mother o' mine, O Mother o' mine!

'If I were drowned in the deepest sea,
Mother o' mine, O Mother o' mine,
I know whose tears would come down to me
Mother o' mine, O Mother o' mine.

'If I were damned in body and soul,
Mother o' mine, O Mother o' mine,
I know whose prayers would make me whole—
Mother o' mine, O Mother o' mine!"

For mother's sake, go to church Sunday.

HOME BEAUTIFICATION TAUGHT IN CLASS AT SHERMAN PARK

Lamp shades that harmonize with the color scheme in a room were planned by the women who attended the class at Sherman Park, Wednesday morning of last week, which rounded out a series of five lessons on interior decoration given there. Informally the members of the class asked questions that had been suggested by the lectures on decorations at the four previous meetings, and combined materials that produced harmony and beauty in their effects.

Pottery vases and jardinieres formed the bases of table lamps. Harmonizing with the color of the base and the scheme of the room, the shade was planned to be in keeping with the size of the table and its position in the room. All this under the able direction of Miss Mable Williams of the Art Institute, who conducts the class.

Considering the color under the light as well as the effect of the plain shade, the students found that oiled and lined parchment produced the softest, and yet an intensely colorful, light for a straight shade.

Oiled stencil board, while less expensive, made another substantial shade. Proportions of two parts oil to one of turpentine made a mixture that gave the best results. Either linseed or paraffine oil could be used for the mixture. Age of the oil is a factor in determining the background for the other colors, Miss Williams explained. After the oiling, colors were variegated to produce the desired harmony.

If the lamp is too dull for the room, just use a little shellac or varnish on the shade. If you want the light a dim one for hall or bedroom, paint black bands on the inverted aluminum bowl shade used, covering one-half or one-third of it, depending on how deeply eery you want the shadows in the corners.

Simple enough, but who would have thought of it until Miss Williams brought out the points. And because it gave them so many ideas that they can put into use in the beautification of their homes the women have been enthusiastic about the work offered them.

Fluted materials were used to complete both the table and floor lamps. Six times the length of the circular wire about the shade was found to be the best proportion for all shades made from chintz, gauze, and other soft materials. Adhesive tape was substituted for sewing whenever possible to attach the material to the wire frame.

Curtains hung in straight lines, samples of rugs that centralized special points in a room, and furniture with varieties of tapestry were also displayed by the instructor.

Coming from Kentucky three years ago Miss Williams took up the work of teaching design at both the Art Institute and Northwestern University. It was through a special request of Major Kensel, Sherman director, that Miss Williams was secured to give this course, including five lessons in interior decoration and five in costume designing, at Sherman Park. No charge is made to the women who find these lessons interesting. Twenty-five have been enrolled in the class.

At this week's meeting the work in costume design will be taken up.

OBITUARY

Mrs. J. T. Maxwell

Mrs. J. T. Maxwell, 83 years of age, the mother of Mrs. M. D. McNab, and Mrs. J. K. McQuarrie, 6814 Normal blvd., passed away at her home in Millersbury, Ohio, April 25. Both daughters were there at the time of her death.

Ernest Wuepper

Ernest Wuepper passed away Thursday morning, May 1, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Delores Eifler, 1416 W. 73rd st., where he had been making his home, after an illness of two months. Mr. Wuepper was 76 years of age and had served in the Civil War. He had made his home in Englewood for thirty years. He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Eifler, and Mrs. L. Kennedy of Seattle, Wash., with whom he had made his home for twelve years in Rockford, Ill. Funeral services were conducted at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the home by the Rev. M. M. Lehmann of the First Mennonite church. Interment was at Mt. Hope cemetery.

Peter Froehlick

Peter Froehlich, 1947 W. 59th st., died Sunday, May 4, at the age of 73 years. High mass was celebrated on Tuesday, May 6, at St. Raphael's church, 60th and Justine sts., by Father Schutte. Interment was at St. Mary's cemetery. Mr. Froehlich lived at the home of his daughter, Catherine.

Gerda E. Fristrom

Gerda E. Fristrom, daughter of Mrs. Ella Fristrom and sister of Gunnar Fristrom, 6414 Wood st., passed away, April 27, after a prolonged illness. She was a member of Clara Rebekah Lodge, No. 290, having served as noble grand of the organization from January to July, 1923. She was also a member of Clara Social club and of Phi Lambda Tau. It was at her request that the members of the last named organization acted as pall-bearers at the funeral, which was held at Thoburn M. E. church, April 29, the Rev. John H. De Lacy and officers and members of Clara Rebekah lodge officiating.

Mary A. Loesser

Funeral services for Miss Mary A. Loesser were conducted at the home, 922 W. 36th st., at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, May 5, by the Rev. Clinton C. Cox of the Drexel Park Presbyterian church. Burial was at Bethania cemetery. Miss Loesser had been in ill health many years, the last three years being confined most of the time to her bed. Miss Loesser is survived by four brothers and a sister, Frank, Edward, Oscar, Elsie, and Henry.

IT TAKES 40 YEARS TO BUILD A CEMETERY

Chicago's Most Beautiful Cemetery

Mount Greenwood

Is 45 years old and has arrived at its present surpassing beauty only through the constant work and care given during all these years under the direction of America's foremost Engineers, Landscape Gardeners and expert Cemetery Managers.

The Hundred-Year-Old Oaks, after 45 years of intensive care, have reached a magnificent beauty unapproached anywhere in this country. The elms, maples and innumerable other varieties of fine trees planted 40 or more years ago are approaching their mature form.

Mount Greenwood is a complete, finished result of what lavish and long continued expenditure, plus expert planning and supervision, plus TIME, can produce.

It is NOT a PAPER CEMETERY which can only, if at all, develop into a thing of real beauty after long, long years of waiting.

The man who selects a family burial place in Mount Greenwood secures something of completed and satisfying beauty now, not something which can only become a completed and beautiful thing long after he has passed away.

A Thought for the Reader

The Chicago district is today flooded with cemetery salesmen, selling on commission, and forcing their way into the homes and even into lodges of our fraternal organizations, where commercialism is not supposed to find place.

It is known that these men receive from 25 to 50 per cent of the amount paid by the thoughtless buyer for the unimproved lots they sell. The buyer pays this commission in the doubled price of the lot.

MOUNT GREENWOOD CEMETERY PAYS NO COMMISSION to any agent or other person, and hence can price its lots at what they are reasonably worth without doubling the fair value in order to cover exorbitant selling expenses.

CONSTRUCTION ON NEW BANK STARTS MAY 1

Expect Completion of New Ashland Sixty-third Structure in Ten Months

The first shovelful of earth was lifted May 1 from the lot at 63rd and Justine sts. in preparation for erection of the $200,000 building which will be the future home of the Ashland Sixty-third State bank, now located at 6346 Ashland ave.

Construction will proceed as rapidly as possible, and it is anticipated that the building will be ready for occupancy within ten months.

Architects of the K. M. Vitzthum company have designed the new bank which is to occupy a plot of ground measuring 83½ by 125 feet. The building will be of sufficient size to give space for bank quarters 50 by 80 feet and in addition three stores and sixteen offices.

The building has been planned with a view to making possible expansion of the space given over to bank facilities as soon as more room is required.

The exterior will be of granite base and terra cotta of a pleasing grey color and will constitute an imposing improvement for 63rd st. The contractor is H. D. Moreland.

The Ashland 63rd State bank opened October 21, 1922, at its present address but has rapidly outgrown the quarters there. E. A. Curtis is its president, Herman Daum and W. F. Campbell, vice presidents, and John Kohlmann, cashier. The officers and directors are nearly all West Englewood men.

APPOINT ENGLEWOOD "Y" BUILDING COMMITTEE

The building committee for the future Englewood Y. M. C. A. was appointed this week and its members are already busy investigating the "Y" buildings in other sections of the city. Co-operating with the committee are the General office of Chicago and the Y. M. C. A. Building Bureau of New York.

With Harry Baumgartner, publisher of the Pit and Quarry Magazine, as chairman, the other members of the committee are Lester Powell, superintendent of the Wells Brothers' Construction company, who superintended the building of the Sears-Roebuck Y. M. C. A., Warren A. Burnet of the construction department of Swift and company, William G. Tegtmeier of Tegtmeier Brothers, and C. R. Jernberg of the Indiana Forgings company.

ENGLEWOOD LAW, ORDER LEAGUE ELECTS GILDAY

Will Direct Activities Against "Moonshine" Operations

"Moonshine" and vice, particularly the former, since it is believed the community has a greater amount of that class of law laxity, will be the chief targets of the Englewood Law and Order league under its new corps of officers and directors, elected at the meeting held April 28 at 6731 Perry ave., the home of D. L. Gilday, who was chosen to lead the organization for a second term.

Mr. Gilday has been connected with the league for fifteen or eighteen years and is also a member of the board of directors of the Better Government association of Chicago.

W. E. Palmer was made vice-president; Dr. M. H. Dugger, second vice-president; Roy Frodin, secretary; Charles E. Shearman, treasurer, and R. O. Winkenwerder, attorney for the organization.

The board of directors consists of Mr. Gilday, Mr. Palmer, A. S. Frodin, Malcolm McLeod, Mr. Shearman, Roy Shobe, William Robertson, M. S. LaMoreaux, M. H. Knapp, and Mr. Winkenwerder.

The Englewood league was the first of its kind in the city when it was organized about twenty years ago, according to Mr. Gilday. E. J. Davis, now superintendent of the Better Government association, was active in its founding. The Hyde Park Law and Order league is an outgrowth of the Englewood organization.

"The league has accomplished a good many things for Englewood," said Mr. Gilday, "that have not been given any publicity. It does not want any credit for its work, but is composed merely of a group of public-spirited citizens who want to keep the community clean and a good place in which to bring up their families."

The members aren't "blue-nosed reformers," according to Attorney Winkenwerder.

"The theory is that moonshine joints attract a class of people that makes it dangerous for girls and women to be on the streets alone. We have no intention of conflicting with the law-enforcing bodies of the state and city; we merely want to assist them."

The ministers of every Protestant church between 55th and 79th sts., State st. and Ashland ave., are considered ex-officio members of the organization, and it is expected to call a general meeting within the near future

Bumping into a pedestrian, a tourist slightly dented a fender.

Instantly stopping the car, the occupant climbed out and proceeded to examine the machine with deep concern. He then turned to the pedestrian and asked: "Are you insured?"

"Yes."

"Good. So is the car."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

E. A. Curtis, president of the Ashland Sixty-third State bank, lifting the first shovelful of earth that, on May 1, put the bank's new building project under way.

EXPECT MANY IN COSTUME CLASS

Major Frederic Kensel, director of Sherman Park, anticipates, he said, a large enrollment in the costume and designing school, the first session of which was held at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning at the park.

Five lessons, with a class each Wednesday morning for the next five weeks, will make up the course but the work will be resumed next fall if it proves popular, according to Major Kensel.

An Unselfish Idea

A motorist speeding through a country neighborhood killed a hen. He stopped and pressed a two-dollar bill into the hand of little Edna, who was on her way to neighbor Reed's. Edna ran and told her mama of her good fortune.

"Well," said her thrifty mother, "put the money in your bank and I will cut the hen's head off so we can eat her."

"Perhaps, mama," said Edna thoughtfully, "as long as we have the money we had better let the Reeds eat the hen. It was their hen."—Boston Transcript.

Early to Rise

The Chief—"Hm, late again, Smith!"

Smith—"I'm sorry, sir, but last night my wife presented me with a boy."

Chief—"She'd have done better to have presented you with an alarm clock."

Smith—"I rather fancy she has, sir."—The Passing Show, London.

Paige - Jewett Sales Jump!

33%

Think of it! 33% more people

Have bought 33% more Paige and Jewett cars

In the first 33% of 1924 than in the same period of 1923

Why?

1. Price and Value — Jewett prices have NOT been advanced, although many cars in its price class have gone up. And Paige is this year $650 lower in price, with even greater quality. Paige and Jewett cars represent good, old-fashioned value!

2. Performance — Paige cars have even better performance than ever. Jewett is the despair of others on hills, in pick-up, over rough going. People today are buying cars for what they will do!

3. Dependability — Paige and Jewett are known for their trouble-free service. In either you can go anywhere a car can travel—and back again—in serene security and comfort. Fine engineering; sturdy construction.

The West Englewood Business District Association purchased a Jewett Brougham from us to give away in their big trade at home drive. Coupons are given with every dollar purchase. Why a Jewett was purchased rather than some other car can be answered in the same way as the question above was answered — because Jewett was the best car from the standpoint of price, value, dependability, performance.

WEST ENGLEWOOD NASH CO. HAS SPRING WINDOW

Window displays add as much to the "livening up" of a neighborhood as anything else. Many of the merchants in West Englewood maintain attractive windows the year 'round. Others are careless about the appearance of their windows.

The West Englewood Nash co., 1700 W. 63rd st., has one of the most unique window displays that has been seen in West Englewood this year. The entire salesroom is decorated from floor to ceiling and certainly portrays spring in every detail. It looks as though the room had been turned into a little patch of woodland overnight.

More windows arranged with the same originality would add considerable life to the neighborhood.

LAY CORNERSTONE OF LUTHERAN CHURCH

Catechisms in the Swedish and English languages, church hymnals, a Bible, and a copy of the conference minutes of the last year, along with a history of the Evangelical Lutheran church, were placed in the cornerstone of the new edifice at 64th and Lincoln sts. Sunday afternoon, April 27, in the presence of more than 500 persons.

Friends and members of the church heard the speech in which Dr. Peter Peterson, a north side clergyman, president of the Illinois Conference, traced the growth of the church in recent years and told the need for the larger church quarters which now are convenient for the requirements of the congregation.

He praised the work of the pastor, the Rev. Gottfrid Olson, who since assuming the pastorate in November, 1919, has seen the congregation increase from ninety-one to 375 persons.

Music at the ceremony Sunday afternoon was furnished by the church choir, led by Miss Hannah Johnson.

Constructed of brick, the church is 46x90 feet in dimensions, and is a $100,000 structure. Next fall a pipe organ is to be installed at the cost of between $10,000 and $15,000.

Get That Home You Paid For
Every family that rents fifteen years has paid for a home. The unwillingness to assume this obligation all at once has prevented many people from getting title to the property they pay for.

It Is Easier
to buy your house than to rent because once the contract on the property is made you know what your obligation will be, but you cannot tell what whim will influence a landlord to change conditions of renting whereby you will be inconvenienced.

DIRT and disease germs are affinities. Look at your carpets and rugs through a powerful magnifying glass and you'll see thousands of particles of dirt and grime to which are clinging millions of health-menacing germs. Dust, dirt and grease spots cannot be removed by sweeping or vacuum cleaning. Clean liquids and pure soap applied by our Special Steam or Naphtha Process will clean your rugs as they have never been cleaned before.

Steam or Naphtha neither wears, tears nor discolors the finest floor coverings. It takes all dirt from them and adds cleanliness to them. The colors are brightened, the nap is gently brushed and straightened, the innermost fibres are thoroughly washed and dried.

Our fleet of motor trucks are at the beck and call of our customers at all times, guaranteeing prompt and efficient service when you want it.

Give Your Rugs a Chance to Live a Longer, Cleaner Life

OUR Steam and Naphtha Process will lengthen the life of your rugs. It will give them cleanness at its cleanest. You'll take pride in seeing them and in having them seen when we return them bright and clean. We are equipped to do your work with satisfying promptness.

TILDEN HANDS LINDBLOM NINE THIRD SETBACK

Techs Stage Two Rallies in Final Frames, Netting Ten Runs

Tilden climbed into second place in the central section race of the high school league Tuesday at White City by coming from behind in the last two innings and staging a ten run rally that brought a 12 to 8 win over Lindblom. It was Lindblom's third defeat in as many starts.

Lindblom looked as if they were going to break their losing streak up to the fifth inning when they held a 6 to 2 lead but then Tilden solved the mystery of Eunson's twisters and began to connect freely. The Techs gathered three hits, two walks and an error and before they were retired five tallies had been chalked up putting them ahead, 7 to 6.

Four hits, a walk and an error was responsible for the repetition of Tilden's five run rally in the sixth inning which was temporarily halted by rain. Two singles, an error and a lengthy flyout brought in two runs when rain stopped the proceedings. Two men remained on bases and when the game was resumed Plankey, the first man up, socked out a triple. Plankey came home on Cuisiner's single. Lindblom scored two runs in their final inning but fell far short of tying the count.

Biehl started for Lindblom but after two runs were scored off him in the first he was yanked in favor of Eunson. Eunson held the Techs in check until the fifth. Putman occupied the slab for Tilden during the first four innings but gave way to Engelund after Lindblom socked him freely.

ST. MARKS DEFEATS GOLGATHA IN OPENER OF LUTHERAN LEAGUE

LOSERS SCORE FIVE RUNS IN FINAL ROUND BUT FAIL TO TIE SCORE

St. Marks defeated Golgatha last Sunday in the opening game of the Evangelical Lutheran league, at Ogden Park by the score of 10 to 7. Although the game was rather loosely played, especially in the early stages, there were several flashes of brilliant playing.

Golgatha threatened to overcome the big lead of their opponents in the last half of the ninth. The score was 10 to 2 when they went to bat in this inning, but four hits, two bases on balls, and two men being hit by Ziemann netted them five runs, and had it not been for a little reckless base-running more runs would have been scored. Schmiege, the youthful hurler for Golgatha, was rather wild in the early innings, but after the fourth inning he allowed only two hits which did not result in any runs. He struck out eleven men and with a little better support should have won. Next Sunday Golgatha will play at Oak Park.

The Buddies are desirous of booking games with neighborhood teams and request that managers of rival nines call Michael McDermott at Republic 1819.

Adversity Only Makes 'Em Fight the Harder

Defeats, suffered in practice and in their one league game, are only going to make them fight harder, these three mainstays of the Morgan Park high school nine declare. Thomas Clark, second baseman and lead off man at bat, is on the left, and Amidore Hoffman, veteran backstop, is in the center waiting for a "fast one" from Harold "Sug" Edwards, on the right.

News of Southtown Boxers

By "Rattling" Jack Nelson
Welterweight Champion, 1911-1914

Southtown fans can soon see their friends and neighbors in action in nearby rings, both boxing and wrestling, as promoters here are seeing the good in using local boys. In fact several promoters, both here and out of town, have asked the writer about our boxers and wrestlers.

A club is being organized to promote wrestling shows in Englewood and Southtown and the writer has been asked to help arrange the cards. Plans are under way to stage some real "top notchers" in good contests and our fans can stay in their own neighborhood to see the stars in action. They may even see championship contests as we have already spoken to several title holders who will show their wares out our way any time. It's up to the fans to show they want big bouts at home by patronizing the shows when staged.

Billy Knowles, the Spanish bantam sensation now making his home in our midst, is making a great name for himself as a good, clean, top notcher in the boxing game and makes a big hit with the fans wherever he appears. Although the little Castilian can scale 115 pounds easily, he is an avowed and recognized contender for the world's bantam weight title at 118 pounds now held by Abe Goldstein of New York. All Billy asks is a real shot at the title and he promises to knock the crown from off the New York boy's head.

ENGLEWOOD K. C. NINE LOSES LEAGUE OPENER

After the first two innings in which they scored five runs Englewood council's baseball team was held without a tally and they lost the opener in the Knights of Columbus league Saturday at Hamilton park to LaRabida council, 11 to 5.

Generosity of McGrath with walks to his opponents was largely responsible for Englewood's defeat. He passed twelve, but LaRabida slabsts, Murray and Quigley, did little better, issuing eleven passes.

THOBURN WINS EXTRA INNING CHURCH GAME

Three Run Rally Nets Win in Eleventh; Juniors Also Win

Thoburn M. E. went eleven innings with Bethany Baptists in the opening game of the Church league season Saturday at McKinley Park, but by staging a three run rally won out to the tune of 9 to 6. Bethany was the champ of the section last year and Thoburn's win over them indicates that the Paulina st. nine will be one of the strong entries in the church league race.

Three pitchers were used by the winners. Bailey started off and after he had sailed through three innings without a hit being made off of him he was relieved in favor of Anderson. In his second round on the slab Bethany combed his offerings for two tallies. He stayed one more frame and then Davis went in to do the hurling. In each of the innings that Davis lasted Bethany scored, and in the ninth inning they tied the count. Bailey was sent back in and he kept his opponents from counting again.

Four hits gave Thoburn their three run rally in the eleventh. Davis singled, Young followed suit and then Bailey connected with a hit that filled the sacks. A timely double by Kraus cleared the sacks. Hanson led the hitting for the victors with a single and a two-bagger.

Thoburn's Junior nine had the same luck in the opening game, defeating the Augsburg Lutheran crew, 7 to 1, at Hamilton Park but they were not forced as hard as the senior nine.

The Juniors will meet the Vincent M. E. team at Gage Park Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock and at 4 o'clock on the same diamond the Seniors will swing into action against the Mission Tabernacle nine.

BRUCK'S RACE CLOSES WITH BIRKS AHEAD

Only one change was recorded in the standings as Bruck's league closed its season Wednesday, that being the deadlock between Ernies' lunchroom five and Royal Sales for third place. Royal Sales last week hung on the third notch of the ladder by one game, but when they lost one of their series while Ernies made a clean sweep, the tie resulted.

Birks Beverage five, which have held the topnotch place for some time ran true to form and finished first. The Woodlawn Recreation quintet which last week trailed threatingly behind by only one game failed to keep up their fast pace and dropped two games to the W. C. Boothey team while leaders made a clean sweep from Al Carrs.

No upsets occurred among the individuals. As expected, Dominick Devito, of the Garfields with the high average he gained by playing only sixty-nine games, finished first. Wolf, who played every game with his team, the league leaders, came in second and his teammate, Brinnan, was a good third.

POLICE TO HAVE BASEBALL TEAM IN CITY LEAGUE

Englewood Coppers Work Out at Ogden Park to Form Nine

Two weeks of practice have rounded baseball players from the Englewood police station into excellent shape and they are looking forward to a successful season in the city police league. Twenty-two men answered the roll call for candidates when practice started, and Sergeant Michael Mulvey, the coach, has the squad fairly well lined up for their opening game next Wednesday.

Of the thirty-five police districts in the city, over twenty are expected to enter teams in the league. Captain Harding of the Shakespeare station is president of the league, and has indicated that three divisions, north, west and south, will be made in the league. The schedule has not yet been announced, although the date of the first game is set.

Englewood's high hopes are based on the fact that the station has a large number of young men on the roll, many of whom have experience in semi-pro circles. For two years in succession the local station has placed second in the policemen's field meet and most of the men who figured in the scoring there are out for the nine.

To hold down the slab duties for the team Coach Mulvey has three likely candidates in Gerhardt Veith, John Hazzard and Milton Keebler. Veith shows the most promise and will probably start the opening game. Daniel Donohue and Anton Zapolski are both fighting hard to land a regular place behind the bat. Bert O'Brien is the most capable aspirant for the first base berth and Paul Borsholt will probably hold down the keystone sack. Competition for the shortstop's place is keen between Pat Dunne and John Genna. Walter Lyons looms as the third sacker.

In the outfield, Edward Doyle, Charles Barrett and Dennis O'Brien will probably land regular berths.

Other capable candidates who are working hard to land regular berths and who may break into the starting lineup are John Condon, George Bevan, Albert Heifert and John J. Barrett, infielders and J. J. McCarthy, Otto Manning, J. E. O'Halloran and Edward Ruddy, outfielders.

The team faces a problem in procuring uniforms and an appeal will be made to the business men of Englewood for donations in order to raise funds. In other police districts the business men have given willingly to purchase apparatus for the station gymnasiums, but no request was made by the Englewood police, as the condemnation of the upper floors of their station has prevented them from having a gym.

Out of the Rough

By Fred S. Clisbee

Article 14

The goal of everyone playing golf is distance, whether it be the wood or iron. The desire is so great in most cases that it has probably prevented more players from consistently getting distance than any other cause.

Distance is obtained by a speedy club head meeting the ball squarely. You will be surprised at the distance you can get by swinging easily and meeting the ball squarely. Therefore, I would suggest that in your endeavor to obtain added distance on your shots you devote your efforts first towards developing a swing that meets the ball squarely, rather than a speedy one. You can gradually increase the speed of the club until the maximum is reached.

Don't overstep this point. Keep within your limit as to speed. It is better to sacrifice speed than squareness of hit anytime. Meeting the ball squarely isn't just hitting it on the face of the club, as most golfers think, but a great deal more. The ball must meet the center of the face, which is at direct right angles with the direction line the ball is to carry on. It is not only essential that this happen but the face position at moment of impact be carried on during the hit through the ball.

There should be no thought or effort on your part to alter the position of the clubhead, either at the point of impact or the hit through. The club face does change from this position, but it does it automatically and requires no effort on your part. The turn of the face comes in the follow through and is caused entirely from the body pivoting, a purely natural turn.

The speed of the club is obtained through your ability to keep the body out of the way of the arm swinging in the arch. No matter how hard or forceful your arms, faulty body action can retard, if not actually stop, the club head at the moment of impact. Speed on the up swing makes a slower down stroke and it's the speed meeting and carrying through the ball that counts for distance. The best thing you can do to obtain a speeding club head, as well as a well directed one, is to have your hips function properly. They will keep the body out of the way more than anything else you can do.

When you address the ball, push the hips back and feel that they are not tense but set. You now have a bent position of the waist. Carry the club back, allowing the knee to bend so as to prevent losing this bent position you had at the start, until the top of the swing is reached. Your shoulder has turned and is even with the ball and right side of your waist is still bent, right hip well back. Now start the arm swing down, holding the bent position of the right side in place until the arms pull the right shoulder, then let it turn and go in the same course of arms. Maintain the bent position you take on your address throughout the entire swing of the club and you will get the greatest amount of speed.

START OUTDOOR GYM SEASON NEXT WEEK

The outdoor gymnasium season for both men and women at Ogden park will begin next Thursday, May 15, according to Daniel Russell, park director. Park facilities are open to the public and instruction, showers, and locker service, are free.

MARBLE CHAMPS TO VISIT ATLANTIC CITY

The winners of the third annual marble tournament, the preliminaries of which will be held at Hamilton and Ogden parks Saturday, May 10, will spend the first week of June enjoying the breezes at Atlantic City with all expenses paid. Competition is open to all boys and girls under 15 years of age. Registration must be made with the park directors.

In the contest on May 10 each park will select a team of six players to represent it at the city meet to be held at Grant park on May 17. On May 24 the final contest will be staged at Grant park to pick the individual city champion and the team of six players that will journey to Atlantic City on June 1 to engage in the tournament for the championship of the United States.

PARK PRESENTS FIGHTING CHALLENGE TO FORMER SOLDIER

Out of curiosity Major Frederic Kensel, Sherman director, took the examination for South Park director in the spring of 1922. He had recently retired from the Marine corps where he had earned his rank and was curious to know whether he could pass a civil service examination after taking every form of military test and never failing. He had no particular desire to become a park director and when he took the examination he did not fully know what position it offered. Not knowing what to study he made no preparations.

"The first part of the test was so simple," said Major Kensel, "that I thought it was for one of the jobs carrying a pointed stick and picking up papers. Not wishing to make myself conspicuous I made no inquiries regarding the nature of the examination from the other applicants.

"A few weeks later I was notified by the South Park board that I had passed the examination and that there was a vacancy at Sherman Park. I came here but never expected to stay. However, I found a problem. What can be done to make Sherman Park the kind of a park that the people want it to be, I asked myself. The solving of this problem has kept me here two years."

At the time Major Kensel came to the park gangs and hoodlums controlled practically everything in the park and kept the better element out. Every dance held here was invaded by these "roughnecks" and high class organizations would not come here. The first law that Major Kensel laid down was that all affairs conducted by private organizations would be behind closed doors and that no one except those they had invited would be permitted to enter. The same plan was used in the park affairs which Major Kensel conducted.

The exclusion of the undesirables who had so long held control by strength of fists met with great opposition. Major Kensel received many threats on his life and for protection he brought his .45 caliber army revolver to the park. The park office was burglarized and the gun taken. He then had screens put on the windows but while at work late at night he often looked up from his desk to find faces peering in through the windows at him. To avoid being a perfect target for any one who had designs against his life he had the panes painted over. One man attempted to hold up Major Kensel in the park and various schemes were used in an attempt to oust him.

All this made the work interesting to a man that had been all his life in military service and Major Kensel stayed on. He has had the satisfaction of seeing the park grow to a place where respectable people want to come.

Previous to coming to the park Major Kensel spent all his life in military service. As a youth he was a member of the Massachusetts State Militia and three months after joining this unit he was called for service in the Spanish-American war. He attempted to get into Theodore Roosevelt's "Rough Riders" but was refused as the regiment was over enlisted. He still has the letter of regrets from the president when he was refused admission.

In 1899 he entered West Point, but was forced to resign in 1901 because of eye trouble. At the academy they were allowed to study only until 10 o'clock but, like all the rest of the cadets, he was unable to get his lessons in the time allotted and it was necessary for him to study under the bed by the light of a flickering candle. During the year 1902 he was nearly blind and was under medical care but recovered his eyesight and the following year took the examinations and became a second lieutenant in the Marine corps. Two years later he became a first lieutenant and after service in the Philippine Insurrection he resigned in 1911.

From then to the outbreak of the World War he was professor of military science and tactics at the Morgan Park Military academy. He was called back into service at the outbreak of the war and was made a captain. He had worn the captain's bars only one day when he was raised to the rank of major. During this time he served as recruiting officer at Chicago and was Judge Advocate of the General Court Martial at Norfolk, W. Va. He resigned again in December, 1919.

Simple and Easy

At a big party in London, a woman of the newly rich and ostentatious class was sitting beside the wife of a prominent labor leader. The former began to talk about her jewelry. "I clean my diamonds with ammonia," she said: "my rubies with Bordeaux wine, my emeralds with Danzig brandy and my sapphires with fresh milk. And you, Mrs. Blank?" she asked, turning to the labor leader's wife.

"Oh, I don't clean mine," said the latter airily. "When they get dirty, I simply throw them away."—Boston Transcript.

PLAYS PIANO ACCOMPANIMENTS ALTHOUGH ONLY FIVE YEARS OF AGE

—Economist Photo

For the kindergarten youngsters at school want to sing songs they have piano accompaniments played by 5 year old Dorothy Buchthal

It was Dorothy's imitation to reproduce the pieces her older brother had played on the piano that induced her parents Mr and Mrs Charles Buchthal to give her lessons started only four months ago Now she plays some dozen little piece

"Dorothy is a very unusual little tot" said Mrs H A Kreeding 706 W 60th pl, her teacher "she is learning to read notes with remarkable rapidity and she puts a great deal of expression into her playing"

The Buchthals have recently moved from 6749 Emerald ave to 7155 Campbell av

WEST HIGHLANDERS REPORT EFFORTS AT CLEAN-UP UNAVAILING

WANT ASH AND GARBAGE FORCES MOTORIZED; "PRESENT SYSTEM POLITICAL RELIC"

How thoroughly determined the residents of the district between Halsted and Ashland, along 74th ave to better the conditions of their streets and alleys was shown at the bi monthly meeting of the West Hamilton Improvement association held last Thursday night in the real estate office of Barton and Payne 7306 Halsted st

Harry F Kramer president of the association, stated that he has repeatedly called Alderman Patrick J Ryan on the telephone at his home and at the city hall but has been unable to reach him Efforts to get action from the ward superintendent and the ward committeemen has also been unavailing he said

Meanwhile the alleys were becoming impassable with ashes and refuse" declared Mr Kramer "the decaying vegetable and animal matter suggested that the health department might do something so I visited Dr Herman N Bundesen

The health department chief told me that in spite of how insanitary alleys are he could do nothing until there was said to result in a contagious disease being contracted Mr Kramer said he was amazed to learn that the health department was powerless to take preventive measures which would be so much more economical than curative steps

A committee is being formed to make an effort to compile tax data for West Hamilton Comparisons will be made between the present tax payments and those of the past to determine what benefit the district could expect for the increase It is hoped to have these figures ready for the next meeting to be given a representative of the department of streets and alleys who is expected to attend

The association went on record as being in favor of motorizing the ash and garbage removal forces President Kramer maintained that the present team and wagon method is a survival of the political spoils system A motor with trailer can do five times the work of a team he maintained and for that reason the politicians do not want them as it cut down the number of jobs they have to give out to those who aid them at election time

Naturally

The inquisitive old lady was bending over the bed of a wounded soldier whose head was swathed with cotton and linen

"Were you wounded in the head my boy" she asked

"Nom" replied a faint voice "I was shot in the foot and too bandage has sunk up" The American Legion News said he was amazed to learn

OPEN "Y" CAMPS IN INDIAN RESERVATION

Illinois boys will have a chance to play with genuine American Indians this summer. Two hundred acres, with nine miles of shore line on Crooked lake in the heart of the Lac du Flambeau Indian Reservation in northern Wisconsin, will be opened up as two boys' camps this summer by the Chicago Y. M. C. A.

Here a boy can give vent to his inherent, God-given savagery without getting into jail, according to A. E Cross, chairman of the camp committee He can run, climb swim fish, or yell like a wild Indian on the warpath, if he feels like it. No zones of silence, no traffic policeman, no nervous old ladies, no stiff white collars no creased trousers 'Just a chance to really live and give expression to the pioneer and explorer in every normal boy

Camping in these northern woods will give a boy first hand contact with nature, along with a chance to investigate beaver ponds, travel by canoe over trackless wastes with an experienced guide, discover deer, porcupines, grouse and many other wild creatures, who are at home to those who know how to make friends with them.

Two camps for boys will be conducted at Hastings lake near Lake Villa, Ill, where the association owns the whole lake Good roads make this camp of easy access by automobile

Other camps conducted by the Chicago Association are Camp Pinewood, near Muskegon, Mich Camp Duncan on Fish lake, near Volo Ill Camp Channing, on the Kankakee river. The Y M. C A also carries on the recreational and religious activities at Camp Roosevelt

Making a Reputation!

NULOX—The Tonic for Your Hair, is establishing this reputation—"NULOX is the nicest thing I ever used—and it does the work."—That is what the people who are using NULOX say

When you purchase a hair tonic—you buy something you believe will stop dandruff and itching or stop falling hair—it is not the hair tonic you really want but—the results the hair tonic produces.

NULOX produces results in just these instances besides adding an incomparable life and luster to your hair.

Massage a small amount of NULOX onto your scalp tonight, note the absence of mussy oil and grease, then gently comb over the entire scalp with a fine comb. Do this each evening, then tell your friends about it

WALLACE HOLMES CO. NULOX FOR YOUR HAIR

If you are already bald use NULOX as directed for about three months and see what happens

NULOX is packed in 8-ounce bottles, almost a month's supply, and sells for a dollar bill. NULOX now on sale at your druggist or barber shop

Historic Children's Home to Be Moved to Palatine

Employed mothers will have an opportunity to leave their young children in competent hands for the day when the institution conducted by the Protestant Woman's association at 6323 Yale ave., is changed from an orphanage to a day nursery and receiving station for homeless children.

First payment has been made by the organization on a forty acre plot of ground situated on the north side near Palatine, to be used as the future location of its home for children.

Home like cottages will surround a large administration center according to plans being considered. Fruit trees will be planted near the buildings and the site will eventually be transformed into a rural residence for boys and children whose parents are dead, divorced, incompetent, or otherwise unable to provide for their care, education and training.

Available space for their housing has become insufficient at the Yale ave. building for the fifty-seven boys and girls who live there. Various vicissitudes were suffered by the home and organization before they were established on a secure basis. During the last four years growth has been rapid.

Everyone Knows Aunt Jane

One of the best known persons about the home is Mrs. Jane Hillegas, who is constantly busy ministering to the physical and spiritual needs of the present inmates. Officially the seamstress, she was one of the first members of the organization to subscribe to its annual dues. She was active in aiding its growth and worked diligently to enlist public interest in the movement to maintain a children's home. Four years ago she took up residence there and since that time her hands have been busy helping to guide activities. To the children and members of the organization, she bears the title of "Aunt Jane," and from her skillful needle come many of the garments that clothe the home inmates.

Caretakers at the institution are widows with children. They are Mrs. Clara Donnelly and Mrs. Rose Richardson. Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. Charlotte Evans, the cook, are trained nurses. Mrs. Sadie Tibbals, the mother of a boy and girl, is superintendent, and attends to the thousand and one details involved in the management of a home wherein fifty-seven youngsters dwell.

More Boys Than Girls

Boys have always predominated among the wards there. Of the children quartered in the building, only twenty-two are girls. Michael Scacchetto, is the oldest child at the home. He is 14, and a freshman at Englewood high school where he is fitting himself to become an electrical engineer. He came to the home when he was a very small boy.

Children are received there at the age of 4, and may remain until they are 15. If homes are not found for them by that time, boys are sent to Glenwood school, and girls to the Park Ridge school until they attain the age of 18, and are fitted to earn their own living.

Frequently adoptions of children diminish the number quartered in the institution. Mrs. Jennie Turpin, 6229 Ingleside ave., president of the organization, has been especially active in finding for children proper homes in private families. She has headed the association for five years and never while she has been president has a death occurred there.

Administration of the home necessarily must be on a business basis, and all accounts and business transactions are checked by the firm of Murry, Herren and company, Chicago, auditors. Receipts of the home from all sources of revenue amounted to $19,253.43 for the fiscal year ending December 31, 1923. Expenditures totalled $17,857.01.

Two Cases Milk Daily

Care and training of the children is given more than ordinary consideration. A sunny dining room contains long tables at which nourishing foods are served by the older children and the staff. Two cases of milk are consumed daily and fruit and sweets have their proper place in the children's diet.

Sickness occasionally requires the confinement of one of the children in the little isolation room. Measles and mumps will assail these youngsters as well as those reared under parental roofs. Patients with serious diseases are sent either to the municipal contagious diseases hospital or to the Cook County hospital for attention. Diphtheria cases are removed to a hospital when they occur among the inmates of the home. Patients with pneumonia have been nursed in the institution, however, to full recovery.

Sunlight and excellent ventilation are plentiful in the present home, which was purchased from the Misses Margaret and Alice Weir in 1918. The following year a large wing was added to the rear of the house. The second story of the building is devoted to playrooms, bath rooms and dormitories.

Downstairs are reception rooms, the dining room, and a large library containing thousands of volumes. Junior endeavor services are conducted there Sundays. Moody Bible students co-operate to furnish the children religious education and training.

Have Playgrounds

It is the aim of the association to give each child adequate education to fit him for a useful place in society. The association board meets at the home every second Thursday of the month and considers plans for the expansion and betterment of the home.

Playground facilities are provided for the children in the rear of the building. Space for a back yard is, however, rather small, for the number of children who use it.

Donations and the dues from the members constitute the chief sources of the home's revenue. Occasional benefits are given to augment the treasury but no help is solicited from or given by the municipality.

Mrs. Turpin and her husband, L. N. Turpin, have devoted much of their time to putting the home "on its feet" in every sense. Mrs. Turpin has long been associated with philanthropic and charitable projects and has been engaged in welfare work for fifteen years. Much credit has been given her and other active members of the association for the present financial condition of the institution, which is free of debt and flourishing.

The association has 500 active women workers and nearly that many honorary men members. Officers besides Mrs. Turpin are Mrs. Alice Millinger, first vice president; Mrs. Ida Cropp, recording secretary; Mrs. Maibelle Tucker, corresponding nancial secretary.
